First Notification of Loss

How to report a private motor claim, digitally, as a broker or customer.

Digital First Notification of Loss (FNOL) Journey for Private Motor Customers

To live up to our commitment of being easy to do business with, our new digital claims service lets Private Motor customers report incidents online through a guided journey, anytime and anywhere.

Customer Benefits

- Report incidents anytime, anywhere via a guided digital journey
- Faster triage and clearer next steps through structured data capture
- Upload documents, dash-cam footage, and other supporting files
- Receive automated confirmation with claim reference and next steps

Broker Benefits

- Improved triage and faster next steps thanks to structured data capture
- A more efficient claims lifecycle for your customers
- Less time spent managing claims on their behalf
- Greater customer satisfaction through a modern, self-serve experience

This launch is one step in our broader plan to make claims faster and more supportive across the insurance journey.

Intact Insurance brings broad experience across Commercial and Personal line portfolios, giving Brokers confidence that every claim is supported by strong market understanding. Our teams apply deep technical expertise ensuring decisions are consistent and grounded in sound judgement. Claims handlers work closely with underwriting teams so technical insight translates into faster, clearer outcomes for customers. This expertise is matched by a commitment to being easy to do business with, reflected in straightforward processes and responsive communication. This combination of breadth, expertise and simplicity helps deliver a claims experience that supports customers when it matters most.
